Dear valued friends of the Odd Squad Productions Society,

The Odd Squad Productions Society (OSPS) is a community based charitable foundation that was founded by and continues to be led by a dedicated group of serving and retired Vancouver Police officers. These founding members are requesting your support of the OSPS in the form of sponsorship to their first annual "Gord Spencer Invitational Celebrity Golf Tournament".

Gord Spencer, the second link in a fourth-generation line of storied Vancouver police officers, succumbed to Alzheimer's disease all too early in life. His son Doug and grandson Beau have carried on the family tradition of service to the community with the VPD and with their volunteer commitment to the OSPS. Gord was an exceptional multi-sport athlete, who could often be found out on the links passing on his love of golf to his children and friends. More importantly he was a dedicated family man and above all a career police officer and educator who was committed to making his community a better place for everyone he encountered along the way.

At the OSPS we honour Gord's mantra as we also sincerely believe that education is the best form of prevention, particularly when it comes to the prospect of engaging in negative behavior. The youth of today face enormous pressure around drug use, gang involvement, social media consequences and other risky behavior while they strive to find a place among their peers in these unprecedented times. Since 1997 the OSPS has been creating award-winning documentaries that focus on educating youth about these very issues that can so profoundly affect their future as well as the health and well-being of their communities. In addition to the documentary film work, the OSPS has designed a number of highly acclaimed outreach programs that are thoughtfully crafted to empower elite youth leaders to educate their peers about these important life defining topics. For more information about the work of the OSPS please view our website at, www.oddsquad.com.

The Gord Spencer Invitational Celebrity Golf tournament will take place on Sunday, June 2, 2019 at the Tsawwassen Springs Golf Course at 5133 Springs Blvd, Tsawwassen, BC. www.tsawwassensprings.ca

Your sponsorship will help finance outreach programs that are essential to our success, making you a vital member of the OSPS family. Your company will be featured at the event and in our auction catalog. Your brand will also receive exposure with the thousands of OSPS supporters on our website and multiple social media applications. A charitable donation receipt will be issued based on Canada Revenue Agency regulations.

Thank you in advance for your kind consideration.
